

| Code | Category |
|-------------|--|
| | Track F – Political science, laws, ethics, policies and human rights |
| | Political and legal factors affecting people living with and affected by HIV |
| F1 | Laws and policies on reproduction (including coerced sterilization and abortion) |
| F2 | Laws and policies on HIV transmission, exposure, and non-disclosure |
| F3 | Laws and policies on travelling with HIV, and HIV and employment, work and residency permits |
| F4 | Laws, policies and practices impacting access to HIV testing, prevention, treatment, care and support |
| F5 | Laws and policies regulating access to drugs and medical devices (including intellectual property and trade regimes, competition law and price regulation) |
| F6 | Challenging criminalization/penal provisions relating to gender and sexual diversity as an impediment to the global HIV response |
| | Political drivers and policy contexts of HIV |
| F7 | Conceptualizing political drivers and their impacts |
| F8 | Fragile states and health systems |
| F9 | Antiretroviral procurement and supply chain management |
| F10 | Political violence and armed conflict |
| F11 | Forced displacement |
| F12 | Migration |
| F13 | Humanitarian crises |
| F14 | Sexual- and/or gender-based inequalities, inequities and violence |
| F15 | Development and poverty alleviation |
| F16 | Access to education |
| F17 | Criminalization, incarceration and living in closed settings |
| F18 | Law enforcement and public health |
| F19 | Availability and access to harm reduction (including OST and NSP) |
| F20 | Financial incentives, micro-finance and other economic approaches |
| F21 | Safe housing, social protection and other care and support for people affected by HIV |
| F22 | Access to appropriate healthcare services (including for co-infections and co-morbidities) |
| F23 | Accountability on the HIV response |
| F24 | Effective models of NGO structure, funding, partnership, strategy and community participation |
| | Human rights and responses to HIV |
| F25 | Human rights of people living with HIV and key populations |
| F26 | Gender equity and diversity |
| F27 | Sexual and reproductive health and rights |
| F28 | Children’s rights and HIV |
| F29 | Representations of stigma: Social attitudes, media and public debate |
| F30 | Implications and backlash to the grouping of and label of “key populations” on reaching HIV response targets |

| | |
|-----|---|
| F31 | Racism and other forms of ethnicity-based social exclusion |
| F32 | Experiences and impacts of homophobia and transphobia |
| F33 | Human rights programmes |
| F34 | Legal advocacy tools and strategies |
| F35 | Stigma and key populations |
| F36 | Discrimination and key populations |
| F37 | Initiatives, approaches and evaluations to enhance legal literacy for communities |
| F38 | Punitive laws and enforcement practices directed at or impacting on key populations) |
| F39 | Challenging criminalization of sexuality, gender identity and bodily autonomy as a driver of HIV programme exclusion |
| F40 | Investing in regional HIV programmes and regional key population movements |
| | Ethics & HIV |
| F41 | Ethical aspects and standards in research (including clinical trials) |
| F42 | Ethical aspects and standards in clinical services |
| F43 | Ethical aspects and standards in prevention programmes |
| F44 | Ethical aspects of public health policy and programmes (including allocation of resources) |
| F45 | Inclusion considerations for research and development and other trials |
| | Policy development, implementation and analysis |
| F46 | Policies regarding HIV services and programmes |
| F47 | Policies addressing social and economic determinants of vulnerability |
| F48 | Policies addressing HIV in the workplace and/or educational institutions |
| F49 | Policies related to treatment access (including intellectual property policy) |
| F50 | Policy analysis and indicators of policy effectiveness |
| F51 | Monitoring and evaluation of policies and their impact on people living with HIV and key populations |
| F52 | Policies supporting increased demand, uptake and retention of key populations for HIV services and programmes |
| F53 | Integration of HIV with other health services (including co-infections and NCDs) |
| F54 | Policies related to diagnostics access (including intellectual property policy) |
| F55 | Foregrounding accountability within the HIV response |
| F56 | Implications of UHC on key populations' access to HIV programming/services |
| | COVID-19 and politics, human rights, ethics or policy |
| F57 | COVID-19 and politics, human rights, ethics or policy |
| F58 | Impact of COVID-19 on HIV risk and HIV care among refugees, migrants, asylum seekers and internally displaced persons |